The Sanctuary Society

We are deeply grateful for the generosity of supporters like you who make it possible for us to run a care farm that rescues abused and neglected farm animals and pets, heals people through animal-assisted and horticultural therapy, and restores the earth through organic gardening and sustainable farm management. We call ourselves Sanctuary One because we hope to inspire care farms throughout the nation. We strive to be a living example of how to build a better world, one farm at a time, in a way that benefits all living creatures as well as the earth that sustains us.

Society members will be recognized in monthly our e-bulletin and other publications where donors are listed; in addition they will receive invitations to special events. The Sanctuary will honor anonymous donations and does not sell or release donor personal information. The Sanctuary accepts and appreciates gifts of any amount. We will promptly send you a receipt.
