

FOUR WAY FOUNDATION

Sanctuary One is honored to have been awarded $14,000 in grants so far this year.

We received $2,500 from the Four Way Foundation of Grants Pass, Oregon to purchase some much-needed farm and safety equipment.

The West Family Foundation of Jacksonville, Oregon is investing $2,500 in the Sanctuary's education program. The money will help us develop a teaching manual that we can use to provide better service-learning opportunities to the hundreds of school kids who visit the Sanctuary each year.

A $2,000 grant from the ASPCA of New York, New York will help us purchase medical supplies and treatment for rescued horses.

The Cow Creek Umpqua Indian Foundation of Roseburg, Oregon has awarded us $2,000 hire a professional consultant to help us update our strategic plan.

The William & Charlotte Parks Foundation of Gaithersburg, Maryland has awarded us $5,000 to purchase a farm vehicle and an emergency generator.

The William & Charlotte Parks Foundation for Animal Welfare

A total of 13 foundations have invested in the Sanctuary since we opened in March, 2008. In addition to those listed above, our recent grantors and in-kind supporters include:
